The Whole Child Gratitude Works! How You Can Make Your Kids (and Yourself) More Grateful

Featuring Gratitude Research Pioneer

Robert Emmons, PhD

As one of life's most vital ingredients, gratitude can make a profound difference through its ability to heal, energize, and transform our lives. Professor Emmons will draw upon recent advances in gratitude research, and teach us how scientifically validated principles can be applied to make kids (& parents) happier and more successful in every aspect of life.
