

JazzGirls Day

CELEBRATING
WOMEN IN JAZZ: PAST
PRESENT AND FUTURE

Saturday, March 9, 1-5:30 pm

Tired of being one of the only girls in your band?

Wondering where all the other girls are?

Want an alternative to the boy-dominated jazz world?

Thinking about joining a jazz group, but you're feeling shy or discouraged by the lack of other women musicians?

Come join us for our 2nd Annual JazzGirls Day!
Led by leading professional women jazz musicians and educators, this event is for girls only. We'll play some tunes, have a jam session, break up into groups by instrument and talk about our experiences as women and girls in the jazz world.

LEADERS

Susan Muscarella (piano), Executive Director of The Jazzschool

Rebeca Mauleón (piano), Director of Education for SF Jazz

Jeanne Feinberg (sax), Co-director of the Girls' Jazz and Blues Camp

Ellen Seeling (trumpet), Director of The Montclair Women's Big Band

Sarah Cline (trombone), Berkeley High School Jazz Director

Pamela Rose (vocals), author of "Wild Women of Song"

Mad Duran (sax)

Tammy Hall (piano)

Michealle Goerlitz (percussion)

Mara Fox (trombone)

Erika Oba (piano)

Kyra Gordon (vocals)

And many more women music mentors!

THIS EVENT IS FREE!

It's open to girls ages 10 and up who sing or play an instrument.

Let us know you'll be joining us!

Bring all your friends, even if they don't play jazz yet!

Please RSVP to: BerkeleyHighJazz@gmail.com

4-5:30 pm - All families and friends are invited to a free screening of a film, "The Girls in the Band" in the Berkeley High Little Theater. Free popcorn!

LOCATION

Berkeley High School

1980 Allston Way at Milvia, Room A201, enter from Allston Way

(This event is co-sponsored by the Berkeley Unified School District, The Berkeley Jazz Parents' Association, The Jazz School and SF Jazz and is in collaboration with Jazz at Lincoln Center, NY, under the direction of Jessica Jones)

bhs
jazz
berkeley high school jazz program